Re: Trotter v. Devereaux Advanced Behavioral Health
Case No.: 23-cv-03273 (KMK)

Your Honor:

This firm represents Plaintiff Shante Trotter in the above-referenced matter. I write pursuant to the Court's Individual Rules of Practice I.C. to request an adjournment of the case management conference scheduled for Thursday, April 11, 2024, because undersigned counsel has an unavoidable scheduling conflict. Counsel for Defendants consent to this request.

Due to the pleading activity over the last several months, discovery is not complete in this matter. Plaintiff will be conferring with Defendants about an extension of the discovery deadlines, and anticipates filing a proposed schedule early next week. Accordingly, this matter may not be ripe for a case management conference.

If the court is disinclined to delay addressing case management issues, Plaintiff proposes that we address case management issues at the pre-motion conference call scheduled for Tuesday, April 9, 2024.

This is Plaintiff's first request to adjourn the case management conference.

I thank the Court for its time and consideration.

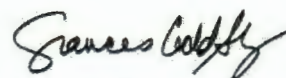

There is no need for the April 11 conference. We will take up all issues in this case during the April 9 pre-motion conference.

So Ordered.

4/4/24

Very truly yours,

GODDARD LAW PLLC
